

August 27, 2015

Becky Woitalewicz appointed Children's interim chief financial officer

Children's Health Care, d.b.a. Children's Hospitals and Clinics of Minnesota, is announcing the appointment of Becky Woitalewicz as interim chief financial officer, effective immediately. Ms. Woitalewicz will succeed K. Alec Mahmood who has accepted a position as Chief Financial Officer of Prime Therapeutics. Children's is launching a national search for Mr. Mahmood's permanent replacement.

Ms. Woitalewicz, currently Children's director of payor contracting, has been with Children's for 14 years managing payor contracting, financial planning and analysis and strategic pricing. Her 26-year career in health care finance includes financial management positions at Metropolitan Mt. Sinai Hospitals and Health One Corporation, both Twin Cities area tertiary care facilities that are predecessor hospitals for Hennepin County Medical Center and Allina Health, respectively.