

Rating Action: Moody's Assigns A2 to West Virginia United Health System's Ser. 2017A; Outlook stable

Global Credit Research - 17 Feb 2017

New York, February 17, 2017 -- Issue: Hospital Revenue Improvement Bonds, 2017 Series A; Rating: A2; Rating Type: Underlying LT; Sale Amount: $180,000,000; Expected Sale Date: 03/08/2017; Rating Description: Revenue: Other;

Summary Rating Rationale

Moody's Investors Service assigns an A2 to West Virginia United Health System's ("WVUHS" or the "System") proposed $180 million Hospital Revenue Improvement Bonds, Series 2017A to be issued through the West Virginia Hospital Finance Authority. The rating outlook is stable. The Series 2017A are expected to be issued as tax-exempt fixed bonds which will mature in 2047. Simultaneously, Moody's affirms the A2 on WVUHS' outstanding bonds. The hospitals and clinical operations of WVUHS now operate under the brand of WVUMedicine ("WVUM"). Approximately $468 million affected.

Assignment and affirmation of the A2 rating is based on WVUHS' status as the largest healthcare system in the state, a formidable market position which has fortified and expanded in reach, and sustained strong operating momentum while absorbing multiple growth strategies. The rating remains constrained by still modest balance sheet measures, high leverage, the weak socio-economic profile of the market and relatively fast paced enterprise growth bringing continuous challenges of integration and absorption.

Rating Outlook

The stable outlook reflects our expectations that WVUHS will continue to produce operating performance in line with recent levels, sufficient to slowly grow liquidity measures and cover near-term capital and strategic investment needs.

Factors that Could Lead to an Upgrade

Sustained operating momentum which translates into notably strengthened debt service coverage measures

Material deleveraging of the balance sheet

Factors that Could Lead to a Downgrade

Prolonged deterioration of operating margins

Increase in leverage which dilutes already modest metrics

Contraction of liquidity

Legal Security

Collectively Berkeley, Jefferson and the Foundation are referred to as University Healthcare (formerly WVUH-East).

Use of Proceeds

The 2017A bond proceeds will be used to: complete the construction and equipping of the 10-story bed tower addition to Ruby Memorial Hospital; construct and equip the Heart and Vascular Institute located at WVUH, anticipated to consist of three open heart surgery suites, three hybrid vascular surgery suites, four cardiac catheterization suites, clinic/exam rooms, and administrative offices; construct, renovate, equip, and expand existing operating room suites at WVUH; construct and equip UHC's new outpatient ambulatory center, and;

pay costs of issuance on the 2017A bonds.
